

Section 5

Q1 Employee Compensation is a statistical term used in national account balance of payment statistics and some times in corporate account as well. It refer basically to the total gross wages paid by employers to employee.

Factor that influence compensation level

1. Industry
2. Location
3. In-demand and skill sets
4. Supply and demand