

Section - 1

Q.1 Cross tabulation →

Cross tabulation is a method to quantitatively analyze the relationship between multiple variable. Also known as contingency table or cross tabs, Cross tabulation group variables to understand the correlation between different variable. It also shows how correlation change from one variable grouping to another.

→ Objectives of Tabulation

- To Simplify the Complex data
- To Bring out Essential Feature
- To facilitate Comparison
- To Facilitate Statistical Analysis
- Saving of Space